Committed for Prosperous India..

It's time for Revolution.

It's time for ArthaKranti.

Let's ask ourselves...

Are we Indians happy today? Do we afford honesty here? Do we feel completely secure?

Honestly, NO.

Most of the times we blame it all on some evil plotting neighboring country, or rising inflation, rampant corruption or Naxalite problems, or some religious or anti-social groups, or global warming, or global slowdown. But these are simply untrue excuses. Very influencing factor in this deteriorating situation is India's Decaying Economic system.

All of us aspire for 'Principled, Prosperous and Peaceful (3P) living'. 'ArthaKranti' is about transforming this long cherished dream into reality. It would open doors of Prosperity for the whole country, not in decades or centuries, but right before our eyes.

And 'Samarpan Yatra' is an effort for all treasured and critical solution proposals like 'Arthakranti' to be realized in specific timeframe. 'Samarpan Yatra' is an initiative committed to prosperous India. It is an opportunity, for each of us, to ride on one of the most important revolutionary waves in this country. “Welcome onboard”.

We know all this. But what can we do?
Is anyone going to stand and do something about all this?

Samrpan yatra

Committed for Prosperous India.
